

National Standards Board for Therapeutic Musicians

NSBTM Representative Council

The Representative's Council is a group of individuals who represent the Therapeutic Musicians Organizations that are accredited and affiliated by the National Standards Board of Therapeutic Musicians.

The Council Members:

- * Attend Board Meetings of NSBTM when requested.
- * Read Monthly Meetings Minutes.
- * Read all documents presented.
- * Participate in discussions.
- * Act as a liaison between the Board and the group they are representing, giving any information or feedback to the Board pertaining to their program.
- * Work as a team member with their Board Member by entering into dialogue with each other between meetings.
- * May be asked to represent a Board member at a Meeting at which point the Council Member will have full voting privileges. The Board governs by consensus.
- * May chair Committees and coordinate Special Projects.
- * Use Skype and know how to navigate the system. Send your Skype name to the Chair. Wait to be called on Skype at the designated time of the Board Meeting.

The term of service for a Council Member is dependent on the desires of the respective program the member represents.
